

Recall of Parliament

Following the announcement that Parliament will be recalled on Thursday, we can confirm that MPs can claim the cost of necessary travel to enable them to return to Parliament. The usual rules will apply for the class of travel.

As a reminder, the rules on a recall of Parliament state:

IPSA will, in the event of a recall of Parliament during Recess, settle claims for any reasonable travel by an MP and his or her spouse/partner or dependants to Westminster or an MP's London Area residence. This includes international travel back to the UK and may include return travel to the foreign location, up to a maximum of £3,750 per MP.

If you do need to make a claim such as this, when completing the claim form please use the temporary 'Recall' journey types which we have made available for this purpose.

We recognise that there may be a number of individual exceptional circumstances and if you would like to talk these through, please contact us on 020 7811 6400.
